MR. AND MRS. J. H. ROBINSON, Son and Daughter.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.

The 70 persons who attended the B. Y. P. U. last Sunday evening enjoyed a well rendered program. Master Ephraim Brown deserves special mention for the manner in which he rendered a vocal solo. At the Leisure Hour Club which met last Tuesday night at Mrs. Tucker's, 2418 Woodland avenue, Mrs. Kate Price sang a solo which was well received; also Mr. Davis Price and Miss Lella Elmore debated the subject "Resolved that the intelligence of man is superior to that of woman." The Baccote Literary Society requests your presence. Miss Bessie Rosen, an excellent contralto singer of Kansas City, Kansas, has joined the church choir. A number of candidates were baptized by the pastor. The Lord's Supper was partaken of by an unusually large membership. Next Sunday Dr. Baccote will celebrate his 20th anniversary as pastor of this church. All invited to attend.

A GREAT MUSICAL EVENT.

In presenting Professor Jackson and his augmented chorus from Western University and Allen Chapel in the Oratorio, "The Seven Last Words of Christ," the Senior and Junior Board of Chorus could not have struck upon a happier idea to bring to Allen Chapel, the biggest and best musical event of the year. The singers represent in the largest sense the superior talent of the race in these Western parts; many of the voices helped to make famous that "Conference Chorus" a few years back which revealed such splendid work before the August body of Bishops. Professor Jackson as instructor of Music will probably be seen to better advantage in this new role than ever. His well known genius in controlling his singers and inspiring them to great heights will find a noble field for exercise in the interpretation of this solemn song. With about eighty-five well trained voices and probably fifteen good musicians conducted by that pre-eminent scholar, N. Clark Smith, every word should be supplied and dramatically expressed. In the matter of solos, success is equally assured. Miss Effie Grant, aside from introducing the "text," will be heard prominently in the third, fifth, sixth and seventh words. Mr. T. A. Reynolds, Sumner's High School's rare talent, will sound the fourth word with his rich baritone voice. In the very first Mr. Robert Smith will lead with his tenor. In the matter of accompaniment the singers will be especially fortunate in retaining Miss Betty Deane, a musician of more than ordinary skill, whose work is highly appreciated by lovers of the art. Her advanced study in music has rendered her a conspicuous figure in local circles. In this line Professor Jackson is known to impose the most difficult interpretations on her with supreme confidence and ability—whilst Miss Helen Minnis list. This young lady is distinctly a product of W. U. and a finished student under the matchless teacher who is responsible for the Oratorio. Tickets are selling fast for this affair and indications point to a crowded house; there will probably be fifteen hundred people to hear this wonderful singing.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our many friends and relatives and the members of the Immature Lodge for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the short illness and death of our dear son and brother, Lester Hubbard, who passed away March 5, 1915, also for the beautiful floral offerings. Mrs. Sarah Hubbard, mother, John Hubbard, brother, Alleen Hubbard, sister, Agnes Hubbard, sister, Hattie Hubbard, sister.

ALLEN CHAPEL NOTES.
Last Sunday was Quarterly Meeting and the services all day were highly interesting. The minister preached both morning and evening and at 3:00 o'clock Rev. Treadwell of St. Luke's preached the Communion sermon. Dr. Peck, the presiding elder, was in attendance at another meeting out in the State and Dr. Ransom officiated for him. It was the largest quarterly meeting held in Allen for several years. At 2:00 o'clock the funeral of brother John Cave was solemnized. He was buried under the auspices of the U. B. F.'s. The arrangements for the County Fair under the management of Mrs. Dr. Unthank is progressing nicely. Don't forget the "Last Seven Words of Christ" good Friday evening.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.
By GEO. W. TAYLOR.
Sister Mitchell has been very ill, but is much improved. We hope she will continue to improve. We regret to learn of the death of Soney Brinkley. The funeral was preached by Dr. T. H. Ewing, our pastor, under the auspices of K. of P. E. & W. Hemis. We extend to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy. Mrs. Ella Lawson, on account of the condition of her health left for an indefinite stay in Los Angeles, Calif., February 24. Mrs. Lawson is a very useful woman in our community and we hope she will be able to return home very soon. Sunday was our Covenant day and the services were well attended. Seven were fellow-shipped into the Church.

UNION S. S. ASSOCIATION.
One of the most interesting bodies meeting at the Paseo Y. M. C. A. is the Union Methodist Sunday School Association. The association is composed of all the Sunday school teachers and workers of the Methodist churches in this city. The members devote their time to charity work, visitation campaigns and definite Bible study. The enrollment is now more than 75, and classes are held in the three rooms of the educational department of the Y. M. C. A. every Wednesday night at 8 o'clock.
Rev. W. H. Peck and his estimable wife were the originators of the movement, and it is the only one of its kind among Negroes in the United States. Letters of inquiry have come from various cities as to the methods and objects of the association. There is little doubt that the movement will spread through the entire A. M. E. church, and that the General Conference next year will take special notice of it.

In study, the members follow the regular course as outlined by the International Sunday School Association, and at the end of the course the students will be examined in questions sent from New York, and will be awarded diplomas by the New York headquarters. The work of instruction is in charge of Prof. T. B. Steward, who is general superintendent, dean of the faculty and professor of methods. He is ably assisted by Prof. Archer Gregg of Western University, who teaches the Bible and its institutions, and by Prof. A. M. Wilson of the Penna. school, who teaches Biblical history and geography. Enrollment and attendance in these classes are without charge, and all male students and teachers are welcome. The effect of the Union's work is already felt in the various Sunday schools throughout the city. Better results in teaching and attendance are reported constantly. Through the house to house visits many children have been induced to attend Sunday school, and become acquainted with the world's best system of ethics and Christian living.

A number of special lectures have been provided. The first one, by Dr. Frank MacDonald, was a wonderful review of the Book and its books. The second lecture, upon the Adolescent and His Needs, will be given this month by Prof. G. N. Grisham. He will be followed by Dr. Thomas, Rev. Peck and others of equal reputation and ability.

The Union has plans for a special charity fund or linen chest, named for Mrs. B. T. Tanner, which will be placed in Allen chapel. Henry O. Tanner is now painting a picture of his mother to hang over the chest.

There are several members of the association who will be ready for graduation in June. These persons will be of great service in the religious life of the young people of the city. Rev. Peck deserves great credit for having started this work and it is to be hoped that it will benefit many. The sweet, gentle, helpful influence of Mrs. Peck cannot be overestimated in contributing toward the success of the movement.
